Dear Sir

May I take the privilege of remending you about the plot of Ground which was recommended for Sanction free of Cost by the Municipal Councillors, for the purpose of erecting a church at the East Road Basavangudi.

I hope, you will remember my personal interviews with you about the same affair some weeks back - I am waiting for the favourable orders from you -

I am afraid, the interest of the donors will dwindle, if the orders are delayed and the plot of Ground is not secured as early as possible So I request you to be good enough to take some pains in seeing that the said plot of land is given to me at your earliest Convenience

May God bless you.

Thanking you in Anticipation

Yours Sincerely

T Pushpanadan

4) Subd it is reported that the land in question is Municipal land and that it is not reserved as playing place, ~~being~~ prohibited from being built upon ~~A~~ Its estimated cost is Rs 1250/- and one Mrs Eaton is said to have agreed to render financial aid for the construction of the church

5) Read attention is however invited to the Municipal Engineer's note dated 20-12-37 in the connected records of the Municipal office, stating that the Mungra Court has also to be consulted in this case ~~from~~ In their records the Mungra court's opinion is not available & approved, the Mungra Commissioner will be consulted unofficially in the matter. It is necessary to know whether there would or would not be any objection to build a church at the place & if so, of what denomination the church would be. Hence the Municipal may be consulted on the subject, before sanctioning the proposal
